

"It Was the Freest Country in the Hemisphere": Transnational Feminisms and the Chile Solidarity Movement

Dr. Camila Gavin-Bravo
October 11, 2023
4:00 pm
422 Levis Faculty Center

Abstract

This colloquium talk explores how opposition to the Pinochet regime was rooted in support for the leftist presidency of Salvador Allende and the robust and creative workers' movement that supported him. Dr. Gavin-Bravo argues that U.S.-based Latina radical politics were shaped by the Allende era, especially as activists debated "socialism Chilean style," or socialism through the ballot box, and considered the nature of U.S. imperialism, in particular how it affects women.