

LATINA/LATINO STUDIES FACULTY AFFILIATION PROCESS

The Department of Latina/Latino Studies is a teaching and research academic unit committed to promoting knowledge of and public engagement with the Latina/Latino experience in the United States. As such, affiliated faculty are those who uphold the mission of the Department, holding 0% appointments but no voting rights. Affiliated faculty are expected to contribute to the intellectual life of the Department of Latina/Latino Studies.

Affiliation is open to all university faculty (tenure-track, tenured, and emerita/emeritus) whose teaching, research, and service activities demonstrate and confirm a commitment to the mission of the Department.

To become an Affiliated Faculty of the Department, a letter of intent to join, a resume or curriculum vitae, and additional materials (if requested by the committee) must be submitted to the Chair, Dr. Gilberto Rosas (grosas2@illinois.edu), who will forward all relevant documents to the Research Committee. The Chair of the Research Committee will circulate copies of the submitted materials to said committee; said committee will offer their recommendation to the core faculty. A vote of the core faculty will be taken, with a majority vote required to approve affiliation.
