

Friday, March 3, 2006

Latina/Latino 10TH
Studies Program ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION
OPENING CEREMONY

Rolando Hinojosa-Smith Lecture Series

Beckman Institute for Advanced Science & Technology
405 North Mathews Avenue
Urbana, Illinois

Opening Remarks

Beckman Auditorium
5:00pm to 5:30pm

Inaugural Lecture

Beckman Auditorium
5:30pm to 6:30pm

Reception

Beckman Atrium
6:30pm to 8:00pm

Speaker:

Jason Ferreira, Assistant Professor, Ethnic Studies,
San Francisco State University
University of Illinois Alumnus, Class of 1992 (B.A.)

Respondent:

Lourdes Torres, Associate Professor and Director,
Latin American and Latino/a Studies and Modern Languages,
DePaul University
University of Illinois Alumna, Class of 1988 (Ph.D.)

Special Guest:

Rolando Hinojosa-Smith, Ellen Clayton Garwood Professor,
English, University of Texas at Austin
University of Illinois Alumnus, Class of 1969 (Ph.D.)

The Rolando Hinojosa-Smith Lecture Series Inaugural Lecture is paid for, in part, by the Student Cultural Programming Fee. Other co-sponsors include Asian American Studies Program, Center for Advanced Study, Center on Democracy in a Multiracial Society, Department of History, Illinois Program for Research in the Humanities, La Casa Cultural Latina, Office of the Chancellor, Office of the President, and University of Illinois Alumni Association. The Latina/Latino Studies Program will be sponsoring events throughout 2006 to celebrate our tenth anniversary. Please visit our website periodically for announcements about additional events.