CHICANA MOVIDAS: NEW NARRATIVES OF ACTIVISM AND FEMINISM IN THE MOVEMENT ERA

A ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION AND BOOK CELEBRATION WITH EDITORS OF THE VOLUME
MARÍA EUGENIA COTERA & MAYLEI BLACKWELL

Please join us for a discussion and book signing to celebrate the publication of Chicana Movidas: New Narratives of Activism and Feminism in the Movement Era. Edited by Dionne Espinoza, María Cotera, and Maylei Blackwell, Chicana Movidas includes contributions from a wide array of scholars and activists, including leading Chicana feminists from the period. It is the first collection of scholarly essays and testimonios that focuses on Chicana organizing, activism, and leadership in the movement years. The essays in this groundbreaking collection demonstrate how Chicanas enacted a new kind of politica at the intersection of race, class, gender, and sexuality, and developed innovative concepts, tactics, and methodologies that in turn generated new theories, art forms, organizational spaces, and strategies of alliance. In this roundtable discussion and book celebration, co-editors María Cotera and Maylei Blackwell will discuss the volume and its interventions and will be available to sign copies of the book, which will be on sale at the event.

MARÍA EUGENIA COTERA is an associate professor in the Departments of Women's Studies and American Culture and the Program in Latina/o Studies at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. MAYLEI BLACKWELL is an associate professor in the Departments of Chicana and Chicano Studies and Gender Studies at the University of California, Los Angeles.
